Homework Policy

1.) Why give homework?

- To reinforce what the child learns during the day.
- To provide a link between teacher and parent
- To develop a child's concentration skills and develop a work ethic.
- Homework is meant to be achieved by a child, i.e. it provides an opportunity to practice work already done. It is normally prepared by the teacher in class. However, sometimes with senior classes, some homework is designed to challenge children's ability and provide opportunities for creativity.
- Children are expected to do their homework to the best of their individual ability – no more, no less.

2.) How often is homework given?

- Homework is given on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays but not on Fridays. There are two exceptions.
 - ◆ if homework has been neglected during the week.
 - ◆ In classes some project work is undertaken at weekends
- Sometimes at the discretion of the class teacher or the principal, the children are given “homework off” as a treat or as acknowledgment of some special occasion.
- Please note extra homework may sometimes be given during the week or at the weekend if a child has not done homework, made a suitable effort or presented untidy work.

3.) What is the content of homework?

- Ideally homework will contain a balance between reading tasks, learning tasks and written tasks.
- This balance is not always possible and can vary considerably from day to day. However, it should be noted that homework time devoted to reading and learning is as important as written work.
- Homework will regularly contain reading, spellings, tables, written work, pieces to be “learned by heart”, drawing/colouring, collecting information/items and finishing work started in class.
- Children often feel that reading and “learning by heart” is not real homework. Parents can play an important role in listening to reading and items to be learned ensuring this work is done well.

4.) How much (time) homework?

The following are guidelines for time spent at homework. Different children will complete the same homework in different lengths of time. Time spent will vary from day to day and also from the beginning to the end of the school year. It is important to remember that it is the quality and not the quantity of homework that matters. The following are general guidelines only:-

| | |
|----------------|-------------------------|
| Junior Infants | 0 – 15 Minutes |
| Senior Infants | 15-30 Minutes |
| Rang 1 & 2 | Up to 30 Minutes |
| Rang 3 & 4 | 40-45 Minutes |
| Rang 5 & 6 | Up to 1 Hour 30 Minutes |

5) How much help should parents give?

- Parents should try to help their children with homework by:
 - ◆ Providing them with a suitable place and time to do their homework.
 - ◆ To prevent interruptions or distractions, like T.V. or other children.
- Children should be written homework themselves and parents should only help when the child has difficulty.
- If a child has difficulty with homework, the parents should help the child to overcome the difficulty with further explanation or examples, but not by actually doing the homework for the child. In this case the parent should write a note to the teacher explaining the problem.
- Shared reading is not homework in the regular sense and it is simply meant to be an enjoyable exercise between parent and child. If it's not enjoyable, shared reading should not be done.

6) How often should parents monitor homework?

- Parents should check and sign a child's homework journal every evening.
- The pupil's journal is an important record of the child's homework. It is also a valuable means of communication between parents and teachers.
- Ideally, all written messages to your child's teacher should be put in the homework journal (additional pages available at the end of the journal)
- Please check that your child records its homework neatly in the correct page and ticks each item of homework when completed.
- Scoil Náisiúnta na Carraige circulars and other letters to parents are folded and placed in the current day of the homework note book. Please check your child's journal for such notes on a regular basis.

7.) How often do teachers monitor homework?

- Ideally teachers check homework and homework diary on a daily basis. However with large class numbers it is not always possible to check each child's homework journal every day.
- As children get older and learn to work independently, some items of homework are checked less often.
- Some items of homework (and classwork) may be checked by children themselves under the direct supervision of the teacher. This can be a useful part of the learning process for children.

8.) When should parents communicate with teachers about homework?

- When your child cannot do homework or complete homework for any particular reason.
- When your child cannot do homework because she/he cannot understand some aspect.
- If the time being spent at homework is often longer than the recommended amount of time.

9.) Learning Support (LS) and Resource.

- Each student in LS and Resource has individual needs. Overloading these pupils with double homework is to be avoided. However homework specific to their needs, which parents support and help with, can be invaluable. Individual homework arrangements may be organised for children with specific needs

10.) When should homework be done?

- Each family situation is different – both parents working, child minders etc. Ideally, homework should be done before any television is watched soon after school while your child is still fresh, however, some children need a break before starting homework. Homework should never be left until morning time before school.

Remember

If homework is a stressful experience between parent and child, something is wrong! This leads to poor learning and defeats the whole purpose. Should this happen on a regular basis, please contact the class teacher.
